from the pharaohs to fanon dictionary of african biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped africa s history unprecedented in scale dab covers the whole continent from tunisia to south africa from sierra leone to somalia it also encompasses the full scope of history from queen hatsheput of egypt 1490 1468 bc and hannibal the military commander and strategist of carthage 243 183 bc to kwame nkrumah of ghana 1909 1972 miriam makeba and nelson mandela of south africa 1918

the american union is imperfect but it is certainly motioning towards a more perfect union it is this foundational thesis in the fulfillment of the american vision that this book focuses on by affording an integrated and holistic approach the book shows that the american dynamics is transformational living phenomenon framed on four major paradigms that america is a land of freedom that america is a land of opportunity that america is impregnated with inertia within it that propels it to repair its faults and that the nation has been moving to a higher ground in its motion with a concerted effort of its people as one e pluribus unum to build a more perfect union a pragmatic but positive outlook on the american reality in the bountiful land by a first generation immigrant from gojjam ethiopia the author tries to help the reader develop a generic framework in understanding the evolving american reality since the founders took the bold step in 1776 to write an audacious proposal that all men are created equal endowed by the creator with inalienable rights the analysis in the book begins by framing the constitutional bases of the nation as a four dimensional compass using what he terms as the american gps he leads the reader to have a snapshot on the structure of american government citizenship church and state legal economic political and foreign policy issues to show that in fact what is manifesting in the american socio political topology is not a random act but an in built systemic transfiguration in creating the opportunity for all children of adam to realize their god given inalienable rights being geezans freely roaming citizens of the universe in fulfilling the vision of the nation after reading this book the reader will never waste time in random thoughts about the american ever unfolding reality by all accounts america is an emergent and noble idea whose better days are yet to come that is the projection whose totality can be meaningfully captured through a living compass the american gps malaria is an infectious disease like no other it is a dynamic force of nature and africa s most deadly and debilitating malady james c mccann tells the story of malaria in human narrative terms and explains the history and ecology of the disease through the science of landscape change all malaria is local instead of examining the disease at global or continental scale mccann investigates malaria s adaptation and persistence in a single region ethiopia over time and at several contrasting sites malaria has evolved along with humankind and has adapted to even modern day technological efforts to eradicate it or to control its movement insecticides such as ddt drug prophylaxis development of experimental vaccines and even molecular level genetic manipulation have proven to be only temporary fixes the failure of each stand alone solution suggests the necessity of a comprehensive ecological understanding of malaria its transmission and its persistence one that accepts its complexity and its local dynamism as fundamental features the story of this disease in ethiopia includes heroes heroines witches spirits and a very clever insect as well as the efforts of scientists in entomology agroecology parasitology and epidemiology ethiopia is an ideal case for studying the historical human culture of illness the dynamism of nature s disease ecology and its complexity within malaria
